

LEASING A GOAT

I. PURPOSE OF THE LEASE PROGRAM – It is to provide a youth with the opportunity of participating in the showing aspects of the 4-H GOAT program when one or more of the following conditions exist:

1. The 4-H member does not have a suitable long care opportunity.
2. The family is unable to purchase a GOAT

II. RULES FOR LESSORS OF GOATS TO 4-H YOUTH

1. The lessor (owner) of the GOAT relinquishes all rights to train the goat, and the lessee has priority right to show the goat during the term of the lease. Potential lessors should not lease goats they want to show on a regular basis during the term of the lease.
2. The lessor may not take the goat back prior to the end of the lease unless the youth is neglecting or abusing the goat, or the youth agrees to return the goat.
3. The lessor should have the youth sign whatever agreements they decide upon in regard to care of the animal, but no agreement will supersede the terms of this contract.
4. The lessor will allow the lessee to transport and show the animal in 4-H, open, or breed shows.

III. RULES FOR LESSEES

1. The lessee is responsible for the daily care of the animal in whatever manner decided upon by them and the lessor. However, this must include major responsibility and performance by the lessee for this care.
2. The lessee will be responsible to write up an agreement in consultation with the lessor to cover who is responsible for expenses of care of the animal and who is liable in case of injury or death of the animal. Both the lessor and lessee must sign it, and a copy of that agreement be attached to this contract agreement.
3. Showing expenses will be the responsibility of the lessee.
4. The lessee is responsible to take this completed contract to the County Educator, 4-H by the date required in your county for their approval. (May 1, current year). This date is usually several weeks prior to the date that projects needs to be identified, so that there is time to investigate and approve the lease.
